THE 7TH ORIGINAL AND ONLY BOSTON FOOD FAIR.

To Be Held at Park Square Coliseum, the Most Centrally Located and Largest Exposition Building in Boston.

In selecting a building, suitable for exposition purposes, in which to hold their 7th Original and Only Boston Food Fair this year, Sept. 28 to Oct. 31, the Boston Retail Grocers' Association found that the Park Square Coliseum filled many requirements which were woefully lacking in the building where they had held their previous fairs. One very large advantage is gained by the immensity of unbroken floor space on the street level, making it possible to have the entire exhibition on the same floor, a larger unbroken area than possessed by any exposition building in the country. But the main advantage is in the location. Owing to its position in the very heart of the shopping district with easier access to more varied lines of street car, elevated and subway travel than any spot in Greater Boston, Park Square is surely the leading hotel, the amusement, and shopping centre. A site for a new theatre in Park Square has already been purchased and the plans made. A big hotel project is under way, and the Park Square Coliseum, is already there. The Flormyke and Touraine Hotels are within a stone's throw, the Majestic, Tremont, Colonial and Keith's theatres are almost within speaking distance, as may be seen in the accompanying cut. Boston's biggest motor mart and garage is just across the street. The Public Garden and famous Boston Common are practically immense beautiful lawns surrounding the Coliseum. The Subway entrances and exits on these two chief breathing spots of the city, within a few steps of the Coliseum, are used by the vast majority of shoppers, amusement seekers and sight-seers visiting Boston; while Park Square itself is the terminal of some of the most important outside trolley lines coming into the city. A block away are the Tremont Street car lines, and but one block more are the Washington street cars. Here at Boylston street are the entrances and exits of the new Washington Street Subway.

to be in operation this fall. There is no place in Greater Boston from which Park Square cannot be reached on no end of different lines by a five cent fare. Hardly a person visits Boston who does not make a bee line from either the North or South Union Stations to shop, or eat, or attend theatre in the immediate vicinity of Park Square.

The indications at present point to a full house. Let us encourage home talent and help along a worthy undertaking.

The chorus will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. Tickets 25 cents. Proceeds for the improvements at the parsonage. Ice cream and cake will be served in the lecture room after the cantata.

Visit the Caledonia County fair at St. Johnsbury, Sept. 15, 16 and 17.

Barton Fair Next Week.

The Orleans County fair at Barton is due next week and every indication is that it will equal or eclipse all fairs ever held in this vicinity. Entries in the various departments foretell large classes and fine exhibits, and conditions are favorable for an exceptionally large vegetable and fruit exhibit, and the ladies' department in floral hall will probably be better filled than heretofore as the method of awarding premiums has been somewhat changed and prizes offered for articles instead of a lump sum appropriated and awarded as the judges saw fit.

The program for the last three days will be something like this: Wednesday: ball game between Barton, who all but has the state championship, and Barton Landing, who is hot after it, at 10 o'clock a. m. Exhibition of championship lady rifle shot of the world. Races. Vaudeville on the stage. Parade of premium stock. Grand balloon ascension and parachute drop. Thursday: ball game at same hour between Barton and the Frontiers of Derby Line, another fast lunch of players. Champion lady rifle shot. Stage vaudeville. Races. Parade of stock. Balloon ascension. Friday: Barton and Barton Landing again at 10 o'clock. Stage attractions. Lady rifle shot. Races. Grand final balloon ascension and parachute drop. Music by good bands every day. Exhibits open all the time.

The grounds should also be taken into consideration when attending a fair. No chance of accident, every precaution taken for safety; no cause for lame back, grand stand seats are comfortable, reserved seats regular opera chairs; no cause for lost articles, take them to the check room and have them cared for; no chance for spoiled clothing, grounds do not mud up with little rain; no liability of being buncoed, gamblers kept from the ground; fine dining hall on the grounds, and plenty of good drinking water at various places. Buildings and fences all kept painted and repaired. Race track best in the state. The Orleans County Fair is a real fair on a real fair ground.

Reserved seats go on sale Monday morning and are in charge of H. J. Stannard. Family tickets are now on sale by the treasurer, Fred D. Pierce. This ticket costs $2 but admits a man, his wife and all children under 12 years of age, his team and all exhibits, (except poultry) all four days of the fair.

Don't fail to attend the Barton fair next week.

VERMONT STATE FAIR

White River Junction
Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday,
Sept. 22, 23, 24, 25

The Event of the Year

Calling together exhibits of CATTLE, HORSES and SHEEP greater in number and breeding than ever shown on a fair ground in New England, and sure to prove the greatest interest to everybody who loves the horse and delights in seeing fine cattle.

$15,000

In premiums to be distributed to the winners in the different classes—the most generous prizes ever offered in Northern New England.

THE RACES

Every class has the largest number of entries ever made on a Vermont fair ground—as many as 20 horses having been placed for some of the events, and these include the best known trotters in the country.

$4,000

Will be won in these races, every one of which will be a great contest and will all it will cost the patrons of the fair to leave their happy homes and return again.

The Flying Machine

The first dirigible balloon ever shown in Vermont will rise from its moorings on the grounds daily, rising gracefully into the air and then guided by an expert about the grounds and over the house-tops of White River Junction. See the monster in the air and then inspect it where it will be moored on the grounds. Thousands of dollars invested in this flying machine, the greatest curiosity of the 20th century.

Thrilling Polo Match

The polo team of Squadron A and a Boston team will contest for honors on the oval inside the half-mile track. Ever see a polo game on ponies? Well it's the greatest "thriller" of them all—makes your hair stand on end and cold shivers run down your spinal column. This will be the first time this great game on ponies was ever seen in Vermont.

Sheep Driving Contest

The great and delightful surprise of last season will be repeated again this year, but with more dogs and with sheep from flocks never driven by dogs. This will be one of the most interesting spectacles of the many to be presented.

Great Vaudeville

An aggregation of features never brought together before on a fair ground, including the comical bears and some of the greatest aerial acts ever witnessed upon any stage. All is free to every patron.

The Soldier Boys

Cadets from Norwich University will camp on the grounds during the fair, and they will daily give exhibition drills and evolutions.
